4TH SUNDAY IN LENT - SUNDAY 14TH MARCH 2021

Numbers 21.4-9; Psalm 107.1-3, 17-22; Ephesians 2.1-10; John 3.14-21

What is it about the Israelites? They complain and grumble and are punished by God, then Moses intercedes on their behalf and God saves them. And this is repeated over and over. Finally, in Christ we are redeemed once for all, we are raised from the death of our sins to the heavenly places with Jesus. But let's be clear. There are no acts nor works that anyone can do to be saved. Life with Christ is a gift from God and we celebrate it by doing good to others.

✠ God of the ages, your loving mercy is forever, we give thanks for the gift of your only child, we mourn his death and celebrate his resurrection and praise you for the eternal life you bestow upon us.

Text: The Rev Kate Ross, St John's Cathedral, Brisbane © Anglican Board of Mission, 2020

Like the earliest Christians, Anglicans are "liturgical", that is we use liturgies or set services for our public worship and also in our private devotions. Of course, we offer extemporaneous or unstructured prayer to God as well. The Anglican Church of Australia has three official collections of liturgies. In chronological order they are:

- ◆ The Book of Common Prayer, 1662 (BCP)
- ◆ An Australian Prayer Book, 1978, (AAPB)
- ◆ A Prayer Book for Australia, 1995, (APBA)

In AAPB the theme for today, the 4th Sunday in Lent, is "new life". Very appropriate as we recall the way in which this new and eternal life is offered to us in the Gospel reading today. It is all through Jesus- believe in Him, follow Him, give Him the glory!
