Having penned the American Declaration of Independence,

Thomas Jefferson retired to his plantation in Virginia, to do Theology. In a scissors-and-paste job on the Holy Bible, he assembled the texts about morality, reason and virtue, omitting the miraculous and supernatural. Most of the crucifixion was retained, but the resurrection was trashed.

It was said of Jefferson's Bible that it read like a good story, missing the "punch-line". The babe in the manger, the itinerant popular leader, even the revolutionary executed by the government, we can identify with. The likes of Che Guevara, Martin Luther King and Oscar Romero crowd our histories.

They were killed by experts, too! But none of them came back from the grave.

The significance of Jesus' death and resurrection is expressed through the Apostle Paul:

*"... Christ has indeed been raised from the dead ... For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive."
(1 Corinthians 15:20-22)*

As Our Lord said,

*"I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, though they die, yet they shall live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die".
(John 11:25-26)*

PALM SUNDAY - SUNDAY 28th MARCH 2021

Isaiah 42. 1 - 9; Psalm 36. 5 - 11; Hebrews 9. 11 - 15; Mark 14. 1 - 15. 27

Jesus goes into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey with cloaks and branches strewn on the road ahead to shouts of 'Hosanna!'. A far cry from the events of the Friday to come. Friday. The one day that shook the world. Time is important. In the morning, Jesus was condemned, at 9am he was crucified, at noon the world darkened and at 3pm Jesus died. People mocked Jesus as if the Messiah could be up on a cross, dying. And then there were the women. Jesus' women followers were there. They saw the tomb. They thought they knew where Jesus was.

As we join in shouts of Hosanna!, let us remember the joy of Jesus coming and the devastation of his death, that we may live as people of the Passion, dying to all that afflicts us and rising with Christ in love for God and God's people.

Some give freely
yet grow all the richer;
others withhold what is due,
and only suffer want.
A generous person
will be enriched,
and one who gives
water will get water.
