PP's 7th November

By "saints", we don't just mean those guys in long robes with long faces and long beards and a longing look in their eye lined up along the icon screen. When Paul, the Apostle, wrote a letter, he often addressed it to "the saints", aka church people like us. This tells us where to find these "Holy Ones": right wherever they are: being ordinary!

At the beginning of the Bible it is revealed that humankind reflects God. In other words: if you want to get a clue to what God is like, take a look at your neighbour.

Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation...in whom we have redemption: the forgiveness of sins. (Colossians 1:14-15).

I pray that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith that you may have power, with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ. (Ephesians 3:17-18)

Blessings

Father Ivan

ALL SAINTS' DAY

Isaiah 25.6-9; Psalm 24;
Revelation 21.1-6a; John 11.32-44

By faith and righteousness, we belong to the Lord, and as such a great feast has been laid out for our entry into our heavenly home. The Creator King will come and welcome us into eternal joy and to meet with those who have gone before.

Pray to be ready for the glorious greeting and welcome into the promised inheritance.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Australia, and all the other members of the National
