✚ PP's 13th February

What is enough?

How often do people say things like - I have enough money or I have enough happiness! I suspect not often; I even struggle with saying I have had enough food....

It seems to me that Jesus is trying to teach us that it is not all about ourselves, we need to think about others in our journey. As humans we have a way of making the simplest things about ourselves. Even in generosity people can get caught up in themselves, looking for thanks and acknowledgement of good works changes the dimension of the generosity shown.

St Francis of Assisi who is well known for all that he gave up, is quoted to have said -

For it is in giving that we receive.

And in this quote, just like this week's Gospel from Luke that we are being called to consider our own motives and to put others first because it is in that we will find the Grace of God within ourselves.

Blessings

Fr Peter

Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

Jesus teaches us today about blessings and woes. Woe to us, rich as we are. Woe to us, bloated with self-satisfaction as we are. Woe to us who laugh without care. Woe to us, the well-regarded ones. It's chastening stuff for the comfortable. What then can we do? We can walk alongside the poor, for theirs is the kingdom that is the only one worth seeking. We can feed the hungry, because God cares for their aching bellies more than ours. We can comfort the sorrowful; bringing them joy helps us to bring ourselves closer to Jesus. We can stand in solidarity with those whom society finds objectionable for one reason or another. May we 'rejoice on that day' at the end of time 'and leap for joy' along with the others that Jesus loves.

† Lord, help me to become a blessing to others.
