✠ PP's 27th February

It seems that many people have changed how they see life after having endured the challenges of the last few years. There has been a renewed outlook on how people consider their work life balance and a greater understanding of what is important to them.

This week's readings talk about a similar experience in regard to finding our faith, and the Gospel particularly illustrates the changes that are seen when Peter, John and James go up the mountain to pray with Jesus. When we turn to God and bring him into our lives we are changed, we see things differently and people see us differently.

So, if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! 2 Corinthians 5:17

Finding the Grace of God in ourselves is not something that just happens, we need to spend time in prayer and as the disciples were told we need to listen to Christ and his love will change our face for all the world to see.

Blessings

Fr Peter

HYMNS - 27th February

TIS 212, 517, 560, 96

Last Epiphany- Transfiguration

Today we read about a strange event, the Transfiguration, known by the Greek Church as the Metamorphosis. The disciples whom Jesus has taken up Mount Tabor with him – Peter, John and James – witness Jesus surrounded not only by dazzling light but with Moses, the great Hebrew lawgiver, and Elijah, the great prophet. The event is reminiscent of the Baptism of Jesus (the Church commemorated that earlier this year on 9 January) because again a heavenly voice proclaims that Jesus is God's Son, but this time adding that we should 'listen to him'. Lord, beloved and chosen by God, help me to listen to your voice whether I hear it in times of spiritual ecstasy or in the day-to-day activities of life.

✠ Give thanks for the work and witness of the Iglesia Filipina Independiente Church.
