PP's 7th August

Nothing clarifies priorities like realising that time is short. "Living like there is no tomorrow" can really only mean one thing: that in the little time remaining, priorities have to get sorted. If we have not already done so, we soon discover what it is we really value most above all other things..

Our Lord speaks to us through the words of the Gospel, He speaks to this age and our times: to us enslaved to an obsession with 'freedom' and paralysed by the spectre of our thermonuclear war.

His is that perfect love which casts out our fear: that voice of authority which called forth the first light of Creation, rebuked the wind and the waves, and sent demons fleeing.

Our Saviour, the divine financial advisor, gives guidance on where to invest, and it's not where you'd think. Echoing the words of the Sermon on the Mount, the Master reminds us that we are all undeserving wastrels who administer the Grace of God and are, ourselves, in need of Mercy.

Don't wait 'till it's too late to ask and receive.

Blessings

Fr Ivan

God's Church for God's world

26th July - 8th August 2022

Our prayer for the Lambeth Conference and the life of the Anglican Communion is that we open our hearts to peoples of other faith traditions: where there is a history of hurt and pain, may we seek reconciliation; where there are differences in beliefs and practices, may we engage in respectful dialogue; where we have been divided in our mission and values, may we strive to transcend these differences in our shared responsibility for peace and for stewardship of this precious earth. We pray for sacred friendships to grow and flourish in our common desire to live holy lives as we seek the divine presence. Amen

Working for Love, Hope & Justice

THE NINETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

St Luke writes that Jesus tells us to be alert. But alert for what? The answer is for the coming of the master. So we should not be wasting our time doing things that do not prepare for that arrival.

We should be profligate in loving others as we love ourselves. That is what Jesus wants us to do.

- Jesus Christ, King of love, help me to prepare for your coming by loving others as you would want. May love of others become a central characteristic of my life.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of South-East Asia
