

WELCOME TO THE PARISH OF TAREE

No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others.

to all who assisted in the preparation, participated and attended the Commissioning Service and welcome to Reverend Natalie, Jay, Sam and Fin.

It was a wonderful night of celebration with many in attendance including many of Reverend Natalie's family and friends to support her.

To the Anglican Family in Taree, Old Bar and surrounds.

Thanks to each and every one of you for your kind words and thoughts as I finished up at Taree and Old Bar last Sunday. Your friendship and support meant a great deal to me throughout our time in the Parish.

Margie and I were wonderfully impressed by the flowers - thank you!

I'm sorry that I didn't get the chance to speak to everyone individually at the morning tea, but at least I saw so many smiling, encouraging faces.

Thank you again, and I pray God's Blessing on the Reverend Natalie and her family and the entire Parish as it commences this new phase of its being the Anglican People of God in Taree and surrounds.

Your Friends,

(Fr) Chris and Margie

EPIPHANY 5

These readings present a call to authenticity, to live our own lives not a copy of others. Trying to meet the points of the law will not help because there is always more on the list; neither will wisdom nor learning do the trick. It is God's gift in each of us that allows us to be authentic: be your authentic self, be one of God's gifts to the world.

- Pray that you might recognise the shimmering diversity of God's people and use that to light a path in unity, not as an opportunity to judge and divide.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Myanmar.

others withhold what is due,
and only suffer want.
A generous person will be enriched,
