PP'S

We begin this month with the celebration of All Saints' Day – a day in our church calendar where take the time to look back at the lives of the saints who have gone before us and look forward to the lives that they inspire in us by their example and through our continued communion with them.

All Saints is a day where we pause and take time to give thanks to God for the lives of the saints who have allowed the love, mercy and grace of Jesus to shine through them so brightly. We remember those who have influenced the course of world history – the likes of St Augustine, Thomas Cranmer, Mother Teresa, the New Guinea Martyrs, to name only a few. We also remember the saints closer to home – the family and friends whose lives have been a witness to the transforming power of God to bring joy and contentment into a broken world.

We remember them with sadness and grief - but we overlay this with the hope of heaven. We give thanks to Jesus that, through him, the saints have conquered death and rest now in the fullness of peace.

All Saints Day is also a reminder to us that we too are named among the saints The Apostle Paul reminds us we are 'those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ' (1 Corinthians 1:2-2).

Today as well as looking back and remembering those who have gone before us, we also look forward to our journey as saints. Through all the trials and struggles we face we take heart and encouragement from those we remember and those we continue to live amongst. As we remember and honour those who have gone before us, we allow their legacy to be sown into our lives and their example to become the light for our paths. In this way we remind ourselves of the fullness of the celebration of All Saints Day – we are all saints together in our life here and now.

Blessings

Natalie

ALL SAINTS

SENTENCE:

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false; they will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation. Psalm 24.4, 5.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

We praise you, heavenly Father,
that you have knit together your chosen ones
in one communion and fellowship
in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
give us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour,
who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,
one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 25. 6-9

A reading from the book of Isaiah

⁶ On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.
⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
⁸ he will swallow up death for ever.
Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces,
and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.
⁹ It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:
the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.
- 2 For he has founded it upon the seas:
and established it upon the waters.
- 3 Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord:
or who shall stand in his holy place?
- 4 Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:
who have not set their soul upon idols, nor sworn their oath to a lie.
- 5 They shall receive blessing from the Lord:
and recompense from the God of their salvation.
- 6 Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:
those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

SECOND READING

Revelation 21.1-6a

A reading from the book of Revelation

- 1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.
- 2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
- 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
'See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
4 he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.'

⁵ And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

⁶ Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 11.32-44

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according John Chapter 11 commencing at verse 32.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

³² When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. ³⁴ He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' ³⁵ Jesus began to weep. ³⁶ So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' ³⁷ But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?' ³⁸ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' ⁴³ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' ⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

ALL SAINTS

The ministry of Jesus could be summarised in the last words of today's gospel, "Unbind him, and let him go." Jesus, through what he said and did, set people free. He preached liberation from fear, freedom from oppression. We are called to be saints, agents of liberation in our current age.

- ✦ May we carry the good news of Jesus Christ to those we meet in daily life.
- ✦ Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Kenya
